WORLD NEWS BY CABLE

(Associated Press Cable.)

OLYMPIA FOR HONOLULU.

San Pedro, California, Feb. 19.—The steamer Olympia sails on Wednesday for Honolulu with passengers and freight. The continuance of her trips is dependent upon the business of the day.

WILL NOT YIELD IN MOROCCO.

Algiers, Feb. 19.—Germany has rejected the proposition for the joint policing of the frontier of Morocco by France and Spain as contrary to the spirit of equality between the powers.

Paris, Feb. 12.—It is learned in official circles tonight that the Algerian conference has been practically ended.

The breach between the German and French Commissioners on the subject of the policing of Morocco is so wide that the other conferees have abandoned hope of being able to postpone a break-up of the conference at the end of this week. This situation, which is laid to Emperor William's desire that the conference shall fail, leaves Germany and France exactly where they were six months ago, when the two nations were on the verge of war.

The Kaiser is blamed for bringing the conference to a deadlock, and Frenchmen do not hesitate to attribute to him a subtle plan to let France continue the policing of the frontier of Algeria until a serious rising takes place in the Sultan's country and menaces France's colony. In such an event, Frenchmen say, the Kaiser would issue an ultimatum the very moment that France would move to suppress the disorder, and then France would be forced to permit the Kaiser to have a half-interest in the country or go to war.

There is a distinct feeling here tonight that the Kaiser has brought the conference to the verge of failure, that he never desired it to succeed, and that he merely consented to it in order that he might gain delay.

"Never project yourself into a foreign situation unless you have power behind you to keep yourself there," was one of Bismarck's sayings. Perhaps, says official Paris, the Kaiser six months ago was not so confident of the "power behind him" as he is now.

DISOLVED BY SOLDIERS.

Budapest, Feb. 19.—The Hungarian Parliament has been forcibly dissolved by troops.

MITCHELL NOT AMBITIOUS.

Peoria, Feb. 19.—John Mitchell, president of the National Miners' Union, has refused the Democratic convention's offer of a nomination for Congress from this district.

DISRUPTION EXPECTED.

St. Petersburg, Feb. 19.—The disruption of the Cabinet is expected in a few days.
